INVITATION MESSAGE FROM IABA PRESIDENT

ANGEL BRUNO

Dear Colleagues:

As President of the Inter-American Bar Association (FIA-IABA) it is a great pleasure for me to invite you very specially to the next FIA Council Meeting and the Seminar that will be held as part of it, on the topic "Compliance, ESG and Rule of Law".

The theme of the Seminar is extremely topical and important. It is about reflecting on the need to care for and protect the environment, humanity's "common home". It will not be possible to achieve sustained and sustainable development for all nations and for all human beings without this essential care, since we are all part of the nature that shelters us. To continue abusing it to obtain momentary economic advantages or for geopolitical reasons is an affront to humanity, because it not only reduces its possibility of integral development, but also exposes it to its own destruction.

And we lawyers have much to contribute to the task of raising awareness and acting on this problem. The role of compliance advisors, both in the private and public sectors, becomes transcendent so that governmental decisions and those of private sector companies comply with due diligence in environmental protection, based on respect for international conventions and local laws on the matter. Compliance and due diligence are related to the fight against corruption and the exercise of ethics.

This need to comply with the rules aims to strengthen the Rule of Law, the true rule of the game of society. This Rule of Law is broken if the importance of caring for the environment is omitted, which is as important a part of human rights as the value of solidarity in the common destiny of the men and women of the planet.

I encourage you, then, to participate in these activities, which will be developed by leading specialists from several countries who will present in various penalties, where there will be an opportunity to interact with questions and opinions.

We look forward to seeing you soon. A big hug.

ANGEL BRUNO

INVITATION MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY GENERAL

LOURDES V. VENES

Dear friends and colleagues,

We are pleased to invite you to join the Inter-American Bar Association Mid-Year Council Meeting and International Seminar on "Compliance, ESG, and the Rule of Law," to be held virtually from December 1st to 2nd 2022.

The Rule of Law is essential for economic and social development, and for democracies to flourish. Compliance is a key element of a Rule of Law system. The work of lawyers is vital to promote compliance, serve the cause of justice, and strengthen the Rule of Law. The seminar presents an opportunity to reflect on the legal and practical issues related to compliance, the importance of an approach that evaluates the environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors, and the Rule of Law. We will present an excellent academic program developed with the support of IABA member and partner universities.

We render tribute and thank the invaluable support and leadership of our late President, Fernando Fragoso. We also thank our current President, Ángel Bruno, as well as the collaboration of the Executive Committee, the Organizing Committee, panelists, volunteers, and administrative team.

We look forward to getting together to learn, connect, and serve!

Kind regards,

LOURDES V. VENES
